NOTES:

1. The 4th Infantry Division was based in Eastern Command, and arrived in France on 1 October 1940. It came under the command of II Corps. Following the German invasion of the Low Countries, the division came under the command of III Corps for a period of three days, before reverting to II Corps command. It was evacuated from Dunkirk on 1 June 1940. The division remained in the United Kingdom until leaving for the invasion of North Africa on 12 March 1943. It had reorganised as a mixed division in June 1942, losing the 11th Infantry Brigade and gaining the 21st Tank Brigade.
2. On the outbreak of the Second World War, when the division mobilized, the three companies of the Royal Army Service Corps allocated to the division formed an Ammunition Company, Petrol Company and Supply Company. In this division, the 21st Company, R.A.S.C. formed the Ammunition Company, the 57th Company, R.A.S.C. formed the Petrol Company and the 44th Company formed the Supply Column. The fourth R.A.S.C. company was not added to the divisional establishment until June 1942, when the organisation was changed to three infantry brigade companies, and one divisional troops company.
3. In 1940, each infantry division was allocated one Mobile Bath Unit from the Royal Army Ordnance Corps, but the field park and workshop units were Corps Troops.
