NOTES:

1. The Northern District was under the command of Brigadier (Acting) Archibald Bentley BEAUMAN, D.S.O., O.B.E., retired pay (Reserve of Officers), who had his headquarters at Rouen. On 18 May 1940, BEAUMAN was ordered to form a force to defend the Rouen area. An ad hoc formation called 'Beau Force' was put together with three Territorial Army battalions employed on L.o.C. duties in the area. A second brigade strength formation was raised from troops stationed at reinforcement depots in France. This was called 'Vic Force' after its commander, Lieutenant Colonel VICARY. A third brigade strength formation was formed by amalgamating several Groups of the Auxiliary Military Pioneer Corps under Lieutenant Colonel L. W. DIGGLE, M.C.. On 29 May 1940, these three formations were combined to form the 'Beauman Division', with Brigadier BEAUMAN being promoted to the rank of Acting Major General to command the divisional sized formation. .
