NOTES:

1. This battalion was based in Aden, and was brought across to join the Forces in Sudan. It then came under the command of the 11th Indian Infantry Brigade as an additional reinforcement battalion circa 11 February 1941. Following the end of campaign in East Africa, the battalion remained with the 11th Brigade until its capture at Tobruk.
2. This Commando comprised 60% Palestine Jews and 40% Palestine Arabs, and also included in its ranks, Spaniards, Egyptians, Czechs, Armenians, Germans and Circassians. Its officers were seconded from British regiments.
